The YMCA's 7th Grade Initiative Program

The YMCA of Eastern Union County's 7th Grade Initiative Program impacts our community for youth development, healthy living and social responsibility. The Y provides a warm, safe, and supportive environment fostered by building relationships with 7th grade youth. 7th graders will develop lifelong habits for healthy living and grow as responsible individuals on the road to becoming contributing members of the community.

Registration is on-going through August 31, 2012
